CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS: INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNISED 'GOLD STANDARD' QUALIFICATIONS

A certificate of attendance will be provided for delegates wishing to apply for Continuing Education Credits. The symposium is accredited by UKPCBADC, the UK Professional Certification Board of Alcohol/Drug Counsellors, a member board of the 'gold standard' IC&RC International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium of Alcohol & Drug Counsellors. These credits are internationally recognised in about 69 countries, including the US, Canada and Europe. The UKESAD attendance certificate is also recognised by a range of accrediting bodies throughout the UK.

WE ARE GRATEFUL TO OUR SPONSORS:

Their generous contributions subsidise this symposium/delegate rates so that more professionals and trainees in the field can benefit from world-class experts, exchange knowledge and best practice, and network with like-minded colleagues, raising standards for the ultimate benefit of addicts and their families seeking recovery.

NEUROFEEDBACK MEDITATION

Facilitated by Sarah Graham

Take 15 minutes to calm and balance your emotions, while simultaneously recharging your energy to get the most out of your day, using the latest developments combining trauma therapy and neuro research.

12-STEP MEETING

Hosted by John Southworth

After the Mindfulness Meditation, members of 12-step fellowships have the opportunity to share concerns and successes, large and small, and start the day with strong support.

7.50-9.30am REGISTRATION & REFRESHMENTS

Get your delegate bag with guides, raffle forms and other useful items.

9.30-11am OPENING PLENARY

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION: by Deirdre Boyd

REHABILITATION REVOLUTION: GOVERNMENT POLICY MOVES

Chaired by the Rt Hon Lord Mancroft, with updates from Health minister Anne Milton, Home Office minister David Brokenshire, David Burrowes MP, Andrew Griffiths MP plus John Schwarzlose (us)

The coalition government's first drug strategy is in motion, payment-by-result pilots will be live, the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Bill will be passed, consultation papers on drugs and alcohol will have been processed, and the Mental Health Strategy revealed – but there are growing fears about how far implementation will fail. Get a clear overview from government of events. John Schwarzlose of the Betty Ford Center concludes with a US perspective.

INTERACTIVE FEEDBACK

With government ministers, as above

This is an opportunity for delegates to share your experiences of hindrances to drug-free recovery, as well as successful outcomes in your own services.

CONCLUSION: "BRING THEM HOME"

The composer of the Help4Heroes anthem sings it as the fight for recovery

11.00-11.30am COFFEE & REFRESHMENTS

- Book signings by UKESAD presenters who are also bestsellers.
- Complimentary head/shoulder massages by Françoise Thomas of Ki Energy.

A BROAD AND VARIED AGENDA

Each presentation and workshop at this symposium addresses one or more of the five core themes below, with national and international contributions so that we can share knowledge and experience of good practice and leading-edge approaches – and pitfalls to avoid.

- intensive therapeutic effectiveness and family-of-origin issues
- brief interventions – for addicts and families of addicts
- new government policies: how they affect management and care
- structured interventions
- building referrals, enhancing incomes and outcomes.

PRESTIGIOUS INTERNATIONAL FACULTY

We have assembled an impressive range of presenters from around the world who have either accumulated vast experience of direct work with clients, or have published relevant academic or practical works – you can read an unrivalled list of achievements in the speaker biographies towards the back of this programme. THURSDAY 19 MAY 2011 CONTINUED

Each session will cover one or more of these: therapeutic issues, brief interventions, interventionism, policy, management/building business.

11.30-1.00pm WORKSHOPS CHOICE OF FOUR:

CODEPENDENCY: MOVE FROM HARMFUL TO HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

Presented by Rokelle Lerner

Unhealthy relationships are hurtful and can trigger relapse. Codependency must be identified and addressed, to move to healthy relationships. Topics include communication styles, boundary conflicts, how childhood issues surface, and how not to be consumed by another. Sponsored by Cottonwood

EFFECTIVE THERAPEUTIC TREATMENTS: FORENSIC RESEARCH

Presented by Gail Jones, Lucy Dean, Dave Mulvaney

If a particular treatment can turn around the lives of those who are seen as the toughest addicts – offenders with mental-health problems – then that treatment has lessons for every provider. RAPT shares how it cut reoffending rates by 42% using a 12-Step intensive rehabilitation approach.

RGUK: REBALANCING THE TREATMENT SYSTEM

Presented by Noreen Oliver and Steve Hamer

We all know that we should work across the full continuum of care options to give vulnerable people the best opportunities of recovery – but how can this be put into both practice and policy? The Recovery Group UK was set up to rebalance the treatment system, with remarkable success. Catch up here.

DEPENDENCY AND THE FAMILY

Presented by Max Cohen

How do addiction, problematic behaviour and recovery affect families and significant others? Analyse blame, shame, resentment and forgiveness; compare intimate and codependent relationships. Identify the effects of family secrets and rules, roles taken on by individuals and effective boundary setting. Sponsored by Sierra Tucson

1.00-2.00pm LUNCH

- Book signings by UKESAD presenters who are also bestsellers.
- People wishing to network and chat can avail of the Grange City Hotel ground-floor seating/patio/restaurants as well as the conference areas.

2.00-3.30pm WORKSHOPS

TREATING POST-TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER FOR LONG-TERM, SUSTAINABLE RECOVERY: WORKSHOP 1 OF 2

Presented by Judy Crane

Many people cannot achieve recovery until their trauma – often underlying and unidentified – is resolved. Recognise the correlation between trauma and addictive behaviours, including process addictions and cutting. Apply right-brain activities to calm down the hyper-arousal of the left brain, which can otherwise keep survivors constantly responding as if the trauma is ongoing.

ROAD TO RECOVERY: WHERE ARE WE GOING AND HOW DO WE GET THERE?

Presented by Alexandre Laudet

What is recovery? The author of the best summary Addiction Today found identifies research and offers empirically-driven conclusions and thus future directions for policy, service development and research. She also explains what “recovery capital” is and how to build it.

INTEGRATED OFFENDER MANAGEMENT:

Presenters to be confirmed

Link to prisons, probation and police working together to support offenders reintegrate after prison to close the revolving door of criminality and drugs.

IOM works with local organisations to provide offenders with a carrot – “we can support you to change your life” or stick – “any trouble and you will be fast-tracked back to prison”.

PRACTICAL STRATEGIES FOR TREATMENT OF COMORBID BORDERLINE PERSONALITY DISORDER AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Presented by Jack Kuo and Lee Fitzgerald

Studies show that borderline personality disorder alongside substance abuse results in worse substance abuse as well as more psychopathology, self-destructive behaviours, suicidal thoughts and medical and legal problems. Identify practical strategies at multiple levels of care. Sponsored by Promises

3.30- 4.00pm REFRESHMENTS, BOOK SIGNINGS

4.00-5.30pm WORKSHOPS CHOICE OF FOUR:

MAKE HELP FOR ADDICTION MORE ACCESSIBLE THROUGH MULTI-LEVEL OUTREACH VENUES

Presented by Ed Diehl and Matt Wolf

How do providers widen the net to reach more people seeking help? Answer: business strategies including branding, advertising, mass media, marketing and internet. Whether in private practice or the CEO of a major centre, all will leave with at least one new great idea! Sponsored by Seabrook House

MAKE YOUR TREATMENT CENTRE “INTERVENTION FRIENDLY”

Presented by Eric McLaughlin and Ken Seeley

Professional interventions can get addicts into treatment far faster than when left to their fate – but there are differences between clients who self-admit and those who have been “intervened on”. Identify difficult attitudes and how to tackle them, to help retention and enhance outcomes.

MUSIC TO OUR EARS: ALPHA MUSIC AND MOTIVATION

Presented by John Levine and Jim Smith

The first presentation analyses how music affects brain patterns and can thus be applied to the moods and motivations of patients. The second blends recovery issues with meaningful songs, acting as a catalyst to access emotions in clients who have been frozen, and motivate them towards recovery.

Presented by Judy Crane

Research confirms that the primary catalyst for healing in trauma survivors has less to do with the mode of treatment than the “therapeutic” or healing relationship. Be genuine, empathic and knowledgeable of the impact of trauma on survivors, to achieve recovery. Sponsored by The Refuge

6.00-7.30pm EVENING EVENTS

DINNER-DANCE-ENTERTAINMENT

6pm to midnight

Enjoy first-class dining in great company, with comedy and the Milestones band – turn to page 7 for more details as well as memories of last year’s event, attended by major influencers in the field. Sponsored by BAC O’Connor

The first of the day's three Learning Institute sessions on PTSD gives you a working knowledge of combat trauma and related PTSD – clinicians will find the symptoms similar to many clients with abusive childhoods. Discuss diagnostic criteria and treatment. Sponsored by Castle Craig Hospital.

BEHAVIOURAL HEALTH & EATING DISORDERS: A NEW APPROACH*Presented by JC Durbin and the team at Toranfield*

A multidisciplinary team including psychiatrist, counsellor, dietician and chef develop a programme for residential clients to create a new relationship with food and the self by addressing the complicated food phobias, body image issues and underlying trauma that generally accompany an eating disorder.

PAYMENT BY RESULTS: STRATEGIES TO IMPROVE OUTCOMES FOR SUBSTANCE-USE DISORDER PATIENTS*Presented by Professor Keith Humphreys*

The government is searching for models of incentivising particular outcomes in addiction treatment. Identify case histories and research to inform policy, along with advice and cautions on "payment by results". Learn in more detail the evidence highlighted in the January issue of Addiction Today journal.

ALCOHOL AND CO-OCCURRING MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES; IDENTIFICATION AND TREATMENT*Presented by Dr Pardeep Grewal*

It is estimated that 1.6million people in the UK have alcohol dependence, and that it costs the country £18-25billion a year. Now that government strategy promises to tackle it, add to your skills. Sponsored by Crossroads

1.00-2.00pm LUNCH

- o People wishing to network and chat can avail of the Grange City Hotel ground-floor restaurants as well as seating areas near the exhibitors.

2.00-3.30pm WORKSHOPSTHE CHANGING TREATMENT SYSTEM: THREATS AND OPPORTUNITIESPresented by Francis Keaney, Alison Battersby*

The Addictions recovery lead and vice chair of the Addictions Faculty in the Royal College of Psychiatrists explore how they work across tiers 2,3 and 4 and the barriers they face when endeavouring to refer clients to rehab, as well as their desire to forge partnerships across the field for the benefit of all.

EATING DISORDERS*Presented by Debbie Nash & Jo Griffin of Montrose (topic tbc)*

Treatment must address long-standing maladaptive patterns of behaviour. Identify eating schedules, deal with critical physical consequences, and assist clients in exploring key personal issues. Sponsored by Montrose

THE RECOVERY COMMUNITY MODEL: ITS DEVELOPMENT IN THE UK*Presented by Tom Kirkwood*

"Just because you provide rehab does not mean you provide only rehab" – links with others strengthen your service, offering more comprehensive provision from detox to sessional work to daycare to rehab to aftercare and more. Discover a business template to benefit your own community.

PTSD, COMBAT & CHILDHOOD, PART II*Presented by Larry Ashley (us)*

PTSD inflicts 'ripple' problems on people nearby. The effect on families will be explored, as well as suicide, grief sexual trauma and secondary trauma stress.

3.30- 4.00pm REFRESHMENTS, BOOK SIGNINGS4.00-5.30pm WORKSHOPS CHOICE OF FOUR:GROUP PROCESS IN THE TREATMENT OF ADDICTIONPresented by Sarah Buckingham, Dr Daniel Frings, Professor Ian Albery

Group therapy – the power of "we" rather than "I" – is effective, but the processes underlying its efficacy are not wholly understood. Draw on social psychological theory to investigate factors affecting group treatment for addiction. List the results from the speakers' current body of research.

PTSD, COMBAT & CHILDHOOD, PART III*Presented by Larry Ashley (us)*

The final workshop on stopping the trauma spiral and recovering the self. .

WORKING WITH DIFFICULT CLIENTS + SOCIAL NETWORKING*Presented by Michael Hornstein, Chris Knight*

This is an unusual mix of two separate presentations. Michael shares briefly on how the most 'difficult' clients can metamorphose into the most rewarding if we use the right techniques and insights. Chris will help your marketing by helping you set up accounts in Twitter, Facebook and other networking platforms. Sponsored by Alina Lodge - Little Hill Foundation

BUILDING RECOVERY COMMUNITIES*Presented by David Best and the Centre for Policy Studies*
