

SYMPOSIUM FACULTY

SIMON ALDERS COMMISSIONING CLINIC

... is a treatment commissioner with the Suffolk Drug and Alcohol Action Team and a member of the Centre for Policy Studies' Prisons and Addictions forum. His work involves a multi-skilled approach to an enhanced assessment of need, providing access to treatment and psychosocial services pre- and post- specialist prescribing, engaging all agencies in the delivery of a treatment journey, supporting clients into abstinence according to need and monitoring and evaluating effectiveness.

JOY BARLOW TRAINING AND ACCREDITATION

... is head of STRADA, the Scottish Training on Drugs and Alcohol. It is the "leading national workforce development organisation supporting those working with and affected by drug and alcohol misuse" and works to improve the competence of staff working in the substance misuse field so that interventions available locally aid the recovery of those affected by substance misuse.

DR LOUIS BAXTER MD, FASAM ASAM/MEDICAL AFFAIRS

... is president of the American Society of Addiction Medicine 2009-2011. He is president and executive medical director of the Professional Assistance Program of New Jersey, Princeton, and medical director of addiction services, New Jersey department of health and senior services. He is also instructor in medicine at the Thomas Jefferson School of Medicine, Philadelphia.

ANNIE BENNETT LOVE ADDICTION

... is one of the UK's foremost psychotherapists specialising in love addiction. Her work has featured across the media, particularly her book, The Love Trap, about breaking free from love addiction. She is a member of the British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy, is listed with UK Registered Counsellors, and has a diploma in counselling therapy. Annie is also a recognised provider for health insurance companies such as BUPA. She founded her Harley Street practice in 2004, after working at some of the world's leading centres for addiction therapy, including as visiting therapist at the US Meadows Centre for Trauma and Addiction. Her integrative methods draw on cognitive behavioural therapy, person-centred counselling, family systems and experiential approaches.

CALUM BEST CHILDREN OF ALCOHOLICS

... is representing the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (naca), a national charity based in Bristol which runs a confidential helpline. He has spoken publicly about what it was like to grow up with an alcoholic dad, the former footballer George Best, and filmed a documentary in 2009 for Children In Need called Brought Up By Booze. In it, he revealed the impact that living with a father who had a drink problem had on him and for some of the 1.3 million children affected in the UK.

JAMES BROKENSHIRE, MP POLITICAL CONTEXT

... was elected to serve Hornchurch & Rainham as the Member of Parliament in May 2005. In November 2006, he was appointed to the Conservative front bench as a shadow Home Affairs minister. He had previously served as a member of the Constitutional Affairs Select Committee. Before entering parliament, James was a partner at a large international law firm where he advised businesses and financial institutions on company law, mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance deals. As shadow minister for crime reduction, he is responsible for helping to develop Conservative policy on drug crime, knife/gun/gang crime, antisocial behaviour, fraud and online crime. James has been selected as the Conservative candidate for Old Bexley & Sidcup at this year's General Election following boundary changes which abolish the Hornchurch Constituency

GILLIAN BRIDGE RESILIENCE

... is an expert in the brain, language and behaviour, with unique insight into the neurobiological similarities between addiction, autism and criminality. She developed executive training tools based on similar principles, training CEOs of major international organisations, and their teams. Gillian has also taught on the English Speaking Board's Communication Skills courses in prisons and discovered the potency of these in empowering prisoners to make healthier choices for their future lives. She sees language as pivotal to nurturing good mental health, and a major foundation stone of resilience. With a diploma in addiction therapy and in English, Gillian is an associate member of BACP, working in Harley Street. She is author of Stop Smoking and Discover your inner sloth; she is writing a book on Resilience.

DEIRDRE BOYD INTRODUCTION

... is cofounder/organiser of UKESAD and the Unity Group, and CEO of the Addiction Recovery Foundation. She is editor of Addiction Today, and author of Addictions: Your Questions Answered, printed in seven languages, as well as mental-health charity Mind's booklet Understanding addiction/dependency. She is a member of the Centre for Policy Studies' Prisons and Addictions think-tank, of the Recovery Academy and of the Recovery Group. She participated in the dti's Office of Science & Technology project on Brain Science, Addiction and Drugs, forecasting the next two decades. She gave evidence on treatment for the government Select Committee on Cocaine, to be published in early 2010. She was a trustee of the National Association for Children of Alcoholics UK. In 2006, ICAA awarded her the Dr Vincent Bakeman memorial award for Outstanding Community Service.

TOM BRUCE ACCREDITATION

... is a therapist at Castle Craig Hospital and has been responsible for introducing the ICADC – International Certified Alcohol and Drug Counsellor – 'gold standard' accreditation to the UK.

RICHARD BURR MINDFULNESS | DUAL DIAGNOSIS

... Sober since 1991, with a degree from UCLA in cultural anthropology, Richard uses his life experiences to expand on spiritual growth. Working closely with and guided by David Davis, author of Freedom and Forgiveness, a Spiritual Workbook, and Dr Alan Osman, founder of the not-for-profit spiritual center in Las Vegas, The Keys to Reality, Richard has been doing spiritual and meditation work in Los Angeles and surrounding areas for several years. Applying the principles of meditation, prayer and 12-step recovery, he has incorporated the Buddhist principle of mindfulness in developing a guided meditation which has proven very effective in bringing clients into the moment and quieting an anxious mind.

Go to www.ukesad.org

Get indepth details of presenters, and the latest information to keep you up-to-date on activities at UKESAD

DAVID BURROWES, MP POLITICAL CONTEXT

... is Shadow Minister for Justice and Member of Parliament for Enfield, Southgate, after a career as a solicitor specialising in criminal law. He was a member of the Public Administration Select Committee and has served on several Select Committees. He is particularly interested in the policy areas of drugs and alcohol, the criminal justice system, family policy, international human rights and the voluntary sector. David spent 18 months as deputy chairman of the Conservative Social Justice Policy Group's Addictions Working Party. This group took evidence from those who work in addiction treatment or have been addicts themselves and published findings as a review for the Conservative Party.

MAUREEN CANNING MA, LMFT SEXUAL COMPULSIVITY

... is clinical consultant for sexual disorders at The Meadows and Dakota, and has extensive experience working with sexual disorders. She is a past board member of the Society for the Advancement of Sexual Health, as well as past president of the Arizona Council on Sexual Addiction. She facilitated inpatient sexual disorders treatment at The Meadows for a number of years before opening a private practice in Phoenix. Maureen is the author of Lust, Anger, Love: Understanding Sexual Addiction and The Road to Healthy Intimacy.

CAROL CANNON MA, CADC CODEPENDENCY

... is cofounder and clinical consultant at The Bridge to Recovery, a psycho-educational treatment facility for identity and dependency disorders in Kentucky. A certified alcohol & drug counsellor, Carol is the author of two books: Never Good Enough: Growing Up Imperfect in a "Perfect" Family and Hooked on Unhappiness: Breaking the Cycle of Discontent. She has written an elementary-school drug-prevention curriculum, Caring for Yourself and Others, and a secondary-school student assistance programme, Drug & Alcohol Resistance Training, as well as booklets including How to Differentiate Between Normal & Addictive Behavior, How to Help Adult Survivors of Childhood and Sexual Abuse (for pastors and church workers) plus a magazine column, On Being Human.

MAX COHEN BA, DIP PSYCH COUNS, NCAC, MBCAP SELF CARE

... is a psychotherapist and supervisor with over 20 years' experience, and an addictions trainer at a London university. He integrates psychodynamic, person centred, cognitive behavioural, EMDR, EFT and biopsychosocial models of therapy. His specialities include anxiety and mood disorders, anger/self esteem/confidence issues and food disorders as well as addictions and behavioural dependencies.

DR MARK COLLINS MA, MBBS, MRCPsych ADDICTION TOMORROW

... trained at Oxford University then UCL Hospital Medical School, becoming a member of the Royal College of Physicians in 1979. After neurology residency training in New York, he returned as a medical registrar at UCLH and the Whittington Hospital, before specialising in psychiatry and training at St George's Hospital. He became consultant at Springfield Hospital in 1990 where he ran the community mental-health team. In 1993, he joined Priory Hospital Roehampton as staff consultant psychiatrist and was its associate medical director 1997-2004. From 2005-2007, Dr Collins was medical director of Cottonwood de Tucson's

London site. He is now lead consultant on the Priory Addictions Treatment Programme and has an outpatient clinic in Wimpole Street. He is honorary senior lecturer in psychiatry at St George's Hospital Medical School.

OSCAR D'AGNONE MD, MRCPsych REACHING DOCTORS

... is medical director of the Linwood Group of treatment centres, as well as clinical director for all CRI services, responsible for 6,248 patients assessed and admitted across 12 CRI clinics, 14 doctors and 49 nurses. He is a member of the Specialist Clinical Addiction Network, Society for Study of Addictions, international Member of the American Psychiatric Association, member of the World Psychiatric Association and founder member of the Latin American College of Psychopharmacology. He was senior secretary of the Section Education and Psychiatry of the World Psychiatric Association, academic coordinator of the Harvard Medical International-ICONO joint programme, scientific adviser for Argentine's National Secretary of Drug Related Programmes/SEDRONAR.

ED DIEHL GROUP THERAPY

... is president/CEO of Seabrook House, the largest private non-profit chemical dependency treatment organisation in southern New Jersey. He was given the 2009 ACATA Administrator of the Year award at the National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers Annual Leadership Conference. Ed began his career in 1976 with the establishment of a social detoxification programme for indigents in Atlantic City; in 1977, he joined Seabrook House. Working first as a certified alcoholism counsellor, he moved to the community relations department, establishing outreach programmes, developing operations manuals and liaising between licensing and accreditation authorities. He was chair of NAATP, the National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers, until 2009. Ed has been in recovery from chemical dependency for over 35 years.

PROFESSOR CARLTON ERICKSON NEUROCHEMISTRY

... is a research scientist, a distinguished Professor of Pharmacology, associate dean for Research and Graduate Studies, and director of the Addiction Science Research and Education Center in the College of Pharmacy at the University of Texas. He has published over 260 peer-reviewed and professional articles, and is an associate editor of the scientific journal Alcoholism: Clinical and Experimental Research. He is author of a 2007 book, The Science of Addiction: From Neurobiology to Treatment, which won a Hamilton Book Award in 2008. He is a recipient of the Betty Ford Center Visionary Award (2000), the 2003 Pat Fields SECAD Award, the 2004 Fred French Award for Educational Achievement, the Nelson J Bradley Award for Lifetime Achievement (2007) and the John P McGovern Award for Excellence in Medical Education (2009). A popular speaker and lecturer both nationally and internationally, Carl has spoken to about 85,000 health professionals and people in recovery since 1978.

DAVID FINNEY WORKFORCE | ACCREDITATION

... is an independent consultant with a wealth of experience within UK government circles. David was the policy lead for substance-misuse services in the Commission for Social Care Inspectorate, and developed the Guidance for Inspectors of substance misuse services. He currently trains treatment services in how to pursue excellence in their service delivery as well as providing individual consultancy services.

SYMPOSIUM FACULTY

REBECCA FLOOD MHS, LCDC, NCACII, BRI II INTERVENTIONS

... is president of the Association of Intervention Specialists and CEO of New Directions for Women, which treats both women and women with dependent children. With over 30 years' experience in healthcare, Becky has demonstrated expertise in programme development, implementation and evaluation. She was previously vice president of treatment services for Seabrook House in New Jersey, which offers residential treatment programmes and specialised treatment for women, adolescents and others with co-occurring disorders.

PHILIP FOX MATINEE PLAY - RELAPSE PREVENTION

... is an actor, director, experienced facilitator and founder of the Outside Edge Theatre company which brings addiction-related issues to the public stage as well as customising performances for addiction-treatment centres and their recovering clients. He is photographed here with some of his cast.

JOHN FRIEL EMOTIONAL COMPETENCY

... is an international speaker and trainer, and has been a guest on the Oprah Winfrey Show. John is on the board of the Nevada State Psychological Association and is an adjunct assistant clinical professor in the Department of Psychiatry, School of Medicine, University of Nevada. He and his wife Linda are best-selling authors of Adult Children: The Secrets Of Dysfunctional Families, An Adult Child's Guide To What's 'Normal', The 7 Worst Things (Good) Parents Do and The 7 Best Things (Happy) Couples Do. They offer a 3.5-day ClearLife Clinic at Las Vegas Recovery Center.

SARAH GRAHAM LGBTQQ+I

... is Sarah Graham is a counsellor, auricular acupuncturist, drugs and addictions expert. After studying person centred counselling at East Surrey College, she worked at two Priory Healthcare residential rehabs, gaining the Priory Professional Addiction Therapy Diploma. She moved to In-volve to help set up Respond, its joint adult service with the NHS. She pioneered a successful holistic stimulant drugs service, and sat on the ACPO Meth and Precursors Working Group. She is an authority on substance misuse by children and young adults but is particularly noted for her work with gay, lesbian, bisexual, queer, questioning and intersex individuals.

ELI GRANT OFFENDERS

... is senior research officer for the Rehabilitation of Addicted Prisoner's Trust and a postgraduate student at the University of Oxford. She set up and supervises RAPT's data collection system, developed RAPT's accredited alcohol programme and studies predictors of treatment attrition, how the prison environment influences client engagement and variations in treatment change processes across client subgroups.

KEVIN GRIFFIN MINDFULNESS

... is the author of One Breath at a Time: Buddhism and the 12 Steps and God, Buddha, and the Path of Recovery. He is a leader in the mindful recovery movement and one of the founders of the Buddhist Recovery Network. He trained with the leading western Vipassana teachers, among them Jack Kornfield, Joseph Goldstein and Ajahn Amaro. Kevin teaches in buddhist centers, treatment centers, professional conferences, and academic settings. After getting sober in 1985, he earned his BA from UC Berkeley and MFA in Creative Writing from UC Irvine. He began teaching meditation in 1996. Before he found Buddhism, Kevin was a rock guitarist.

ANDREW GRIFFITHS POLICY | CONTINUUM OF CARE

... is chief of staff to the chairman of the Conservative Party, Eric Pickles MP, and is a Conservative parliamentary candidate for Burton & Uttoxeter at the next General Election. He previously worked with Theresa May MP and Hugo Swire MP. Before entering politics, he worked for the family-run engineering business in the West Midlands. He actively supports the Recovery Group which lobbies for equitable addiction treatment for all who require it.

ANDREA GRUBB-BARTHWELL MD, FASAM DOCTORS

... is director of the unique Two Dreams Outer Banks treatment centre. She is respected as a leading addiction medicine physician and is a former president of the American Society of Addiction Medicine. From 2002-2004, Andrea served as deputy director for Demand Reduction in the Office of National Drug Control Policy. In 2003, the Association for Medical Education and Research in Substance Abuse awarded her the prestigious Betty Ford Award for lifetime contributions to the field of addiction medicine. Her peers also named her one of the "Best Doctors in America" in addiction medicine in 1997. She is a trustee of the Addiction Recovery Foundation, which organises UKESAD.

STEVE HAMER OBE FRSA GRADUALISM

... is CEO of Compass harm-reduction services. First a teacher, Steve entered the social care field in 1977, working with single, homeless people in London before joining Cranstoun, a residential rehabilitation programme for drug misusers in 1979. After two years at Cranstoun and then two years teaching English in Sudan, he returned to the drugs field in 1983 to open the Parole Release Scheme, the UK's first dedicated resettlement service for drug using prisoners. Since joining Compass in 1986 as its first employee, Steve has guided the organisation to become one of the UK's leading drug treatment providers. He has an MA in Social Policy. In 2005, Steve was awarded an OBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours.

DR WILLIAM HUANG MINDFULNESS | DUAL DIAGNOSIS

... completed his Adult Psychiatry residency and served as chief resident of Psychiatry at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles. He is board certified in general psychiatry and addiction psychiatry. He helped set up the Cedars Sinai Addiction Psychiatry Outpatient Clinic and provided psychiatric evaluation and treatment for dual diagnosis intensive outpatient programme and inpatient consultations. He also worked with Asian Pacific Counseling and Treatment Centers and Hollywood Mental Health County Clinic. His special interest working with minority groups with co-occurring disorders was awarded the American Psychiatric Association/SAMHSA Substance Abuse Minority Fellowship. He has also been the recipient for scholarships by American Psychiatric Association and American Society of Addiction Medicine. He is a consulting addiction psychiatrist for Promises Treatment Centers and Southern California drug and alcohol programmes, staff psychiatrist for California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation.

Go to www.ukesad.org

Get indepth details of presenters, and the latest information to keep you up-to-date on activities at UKESAD

NANCY JARRELL MA, LPC, EAP CHILDHOOD TRAUMA

... is clinical director of Sierra Tucson treatment centre. With a master's degree in counselling/psychology, Nancy is a licensed professional counsellor and a trained equine-assisted psychotherapist, incorporating Imago theory. She founded The Lacey Jarrell Foundation after the unexpected loss of her 16-year-old daughter. She will soon have a book published about her grief process, The Loss of Lacey. Nancy has counselled thousands of individuals and families over the years addressing issues around addictions, trauma, mood disorders, traumatic grief, PTSD/post-traumatic stress disorder and other mental-health issues.

GAIL JONES OFFENDERS

... is director of research and development at RAPT, the Rehabilitation for Addicted Prisoners trust. She has a Msc in health psychology and a post-graduate diploma in counselling. She was involved in the development of the CARAT service in England and has overseen a 12-step treatment programme for young offenders at Aylesbury Youth Offenders Institution.

BRAD LAMM BRI-I, CAI CHANGE THE PERSON YOU LOVE

... has been helping literally thousands of people to get sober and stay sober for years. Highly motivated and with long-term sobriety himself, he is a board-registered interventionist, a teacher and speaker, and founder of Intervention Specialists. Previously a news anchor, his TV work today centres on his family systems work and teaching people how to begin change in their own lives, and the lives of those they love. Brad's Change seminars bring the topic worldwide. St Martin's Press will publish his book, How to Change Someone You Love, in 2010.

BARONESS MASSEY OF DARWEN YOUNG PEOPLE

... has been a Labour Peer since 1999. She chairs the All Party Parliamentary Group for Children and is a member of the APPGs on alcohol, drugs and Aids. She is president of Brook Advisory Centres, a charity specialising in young people's sexual health, a trustee of the Teachers Advisory Council for Alcohol and Drug Education (TAcade), and of the Trust for the Study of Adolescence. She is a health education specialist on issues including drug and alcohol misuse, HIV/AIDS and sexual health in national and international contexts. She has been chair of the National Treatment Agency since January 2002, was director of the UK Family Planning Association, has published books and training resources on health and sex education and is a qualified teacher.

ANTHONY MASSOURAS UKESAD COMMITTEE

... is founder and owner of Mimosa Healthcare Group, which offers acute and sub-acute care services and is the UK premier provider of training in its field. It includes the Linwood Group of residential treatment services for alcohol dependence. In 2007, Anthony succeeded Lord Mancroft as chairman of the Addiction Recovery Foundation charity, publisher of Addiction Today and organiser of UKESAD. He is also a member of the government's Ambassador Apprenticeship Network and a Management Committee member of the Adult Learning & Skills Council.

DR KEVIN McCAULEY NEUROSCIENCE FOR FAMILIES

... graduated from the Medical College of Pennsylvania in 1992. He served in the US Navy as flight surgeon to a marine helicopter squadron at Marine Corps Air Station Tustin in California, then at a Marine F/A-18 Hornet training squadron at Marine Corps Air Station El Toro. He became interested in the problem of addiction after witnessing the success of the navy's programme for treating pilots with alcohol problems. He is the executive director of an eight-bed recovery support facility. He is a director of the Institute for Addiction Study which has released his DVD, Pleasure Unwoven: A personal journey about addiction.

JAMES McDERMOTT SERVICE USER GROUPS

... is a founding member of from RIOT: Recovery Is Out There, the only abstinent service-user group in the UK. Supported by BAC O'Connor treatment centre, he has appeared in the media, recalling his journey from addiction to recovery. From prison and overdoses, James shows people in the tier system that recovery is achievable for all and is "everything you dream of". He and other RIOT members tour the country and visit conferences to advocate that abstinence rehabilitation and recovery are on the menu of treatment/commissioning choice.

JEANETTE MILLER WORKING WITH DRINK-DRIVING CHARGES

... is senior and managing partner at Geoffrey Miller Solicitors, one of the UK's few firms specialising solely in defending drivers facing prosecution for motoring offences. She is also founding CEO & president of the Association of Motor Offence Lawyers. Uniquely, she refers clients to addiction treatment where she feels it is appropriate.

Dr MICHAEL M MILLER MD, FSAM, FAPA DOCTORS

... is immediate past president of the American Society of Addiction Medicine, director of the American Board of Addiction Medicine and the ABAM Foundation. He is vice speaker for the Wisconsin Medical Society House of Delegates. He will be leaving his role as medical director of Meriter's NewStart alcohol/drug treatment programme to become medical director of the Herrington Recovery Center at Rogers Memorial Hospital in Oconomowoc, which specialises in the treatment of professionals in need of alcohol and other drug rehabilitation.

JANE EIGNER MINTZ MA, PC, BCPC, BRI-II, CAI INTERVENTIONS

... is a board member of the Association of Intervention Specialists. Her areas of competency include crisis intervention strategies for both the addicted and behavioural-health populations and special populations that include process addictions such as eating disorders, sexual compulsivity, gambling and financial disorders, internet gaming, shopping/hoarding and love addictions. Jane's special training involved working with female clients with complex trauma, dual diagnosis, legal and lifestyle issues.

ED MITCHELL PERSONAL STORY, RECOVERY WALK

... has interviewed hundreds of top financial and political figures, having worked in journalism for 30 years with some of the world's most respected news organisations including Reuters, the BBC, ITN, Channel Four and CNBC. He was regularly on News at Ten, Budget programmes and breakfast TV. His career then took a rockier course. Redundancy, dozens of short term jobs, mounting debt problems, alcoholism, divorce and bankruptcy led to homelessness and sleeping rough on Hove seafront. A quirk of fate got him into rehab and on to the path of recovery – a story covered in the ITV documentary Saving Ed Mitchell.

SYMPOSIUM FACULTY

DAVE MULVANEY UKESAD COMMITTEE

... is part of the senior management team at the Rehabilitation for Addicted Prisoners' trust (Rapt). He trained as an addictions counsellor with Clouds and King's College University London to post-graduate level. He has over 15 years' experience of frontline service delivery, development, management and training, starting as a social-work team manager at a drug-crisis intervention centre serving 33 London boroughs, then developing services for BME crack users, and evidence- and outcome-based relapse prevention & aftercare programmes. He is a trustee of the Addiction Recovery Foundation charity, which organises UKESAD.

NIELS OLSEN EUROPE/SCANDINAVIA/ME ROUND TABLE

... is, with his brother Jorgen, a danish rock/pop music duo who have performed with the Kinks, among others. They have released 12 albums, the latest with Cliff Richard. They won the 2000 Eurovision Song Contest 2000 with Fly on the Wings of Love. Niels has also qualified as a psychotherapist and is partnering UkESAD to stage a scandinavian symposium.

KARRIM RAHMAN BA(HONS) DTC, CRW, LCSP(PHYS), APBMD, CRZ

... is a remedial therapist, using therapeutic massage and manipulation, reflexology, Tui Na, counselling and relaxation techniques, including for sports/joint injuries. He first qualified in law and his early career was in local government, then social work. He qualified in remedial massage in 1993; this involves deep-tissue techniques to assist the client's body to return to normal functioning. Deep-seated tension can be released, deposits and scar tissue broken down, and nerves freed, clearing pain.

DAVID ROSENKER ADOLESCENTS

... is consultant to Foundations Recovery Network, having previously been executive vice president of business development at Caron treatment centres. With 34 years' experience in chemical dependency, the first 15 with adolescents, David has extensive expertise in adolescent and adult treatment, adolescent development, family education, student assistance, youth tobacco cessation as well as other prevention and treatment models. He designed and implemented community and professional training programmes, and supervised all Caron clinical services.

KEN SEELEY BRI II, RAS, CNDAI INTERVENTIONS

... is best known for his starring role in A&E TV's popular Interventions series. He is a board-registered interventionist, registered addiction specialist and certified national drug & alcohol interventionist. Founder and CEO of Intervention 911, Ken has been involved in the recovery community for over 17 years; he has been clean and sober since 1989. His success rate as an interventionist means he is often asked to provide drug intervention training for addiction and mental health professionals. He has just authored Face It and Fix It, based on his toughest interventions.

DR RICHARD SEELY MD NEUROBIOLOGY OF RECOVERY

... is board-certified in psychiatry, forensic psychiatry, child & adolescent psychiatry, addiction psychiatry and addiction medicine. He completed his undergraduate education at Princeton University and received his medical degree at the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. Dr Seely completed his residency at the University of Miami. He serves as a consultant to Florida's Physicians Recovery Network, Lawyers Assistance programme, Intervention Project for Nurses, national football League and the Federal Aviation Administration. Dr Seely is the medical director at Behavioral Health of the Palm Beaches in Palm Beach County, Florida.

DAVID SMALLWOOD ADDICTION TODAY

... is addiction treatment manager at Priory Healthcare, and is based at its north London treatment unit.

JOHN SOUTHWORTH CADC INTERVENTIONISM

... has worked in the field of substance abuse and mental health for over 40 years. He began his career as a licensed DUI evaluator. After receiving his CADC in 1984 from NAADAC and IC&RC, he provided inpatient and outpatient counselling for groups and individuals, then interventions which "help people help others". John has led hundreds of successful interventions and is a preferred interventionist for many treatment centres. He trains school employees, local communities, doctors, nurses and other professionals in drug awareness and recovery. In 1993, John became programme coordinator for the Physician Recovery Network in Idaho; in 1996, he became its programme coordinator for recovering nurses. He then founded Southworth Associates which implements similar programmes for Idaho professional bodies such as the Lawyers Assistance Program and Program for Recovering Dental Professionals.

MIKE TRACE OFFENDER ISSUES

... is CEO of RAPT, the Rehabilitation for Addicted Prisoners' trust. Before leaving the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in 2003, he was director of performance at the National Treatment Agency for Substance Misuse, and was the deputy UK 'drug czar' 1997-2001. For two years, he was chair of the European Monitoring Centre for Drugs and Drug Addiction.

JOHN TROLAN BA(HONS) MSC GRADUALISM

... is clinical manager with Nelson Trust, an abstinence-based rehabilitation unit in Gloucestershire, which actively engages with harm-reduction agencies, statutory and nonstatutory, in working towards the goals of the Models of Care framework. Its treatment programme includes housing resettlement and employment, training and education.

STEPHEN K VALLE SCD, MBA ACCOUNTABILITY MODEL

... is president of AdCare Criminal Justice Services in Massachusetts. He has been a leader in the alcohol, drug and mental-health field for over 25 years, helping to create innovative treatment programmes for hospitals, addiction treatment centres and criminal justice settings. A

Go to www.ukesad.org

Get indepth details of presenters, and the latest information to keep you up-to-date on activities at UKESAD licensed psychologist and certified addictions counsellor, he was president of the National Commission for the Accreditation of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselor Credentialing Bodies, receiving awards for this work. He is author of Alcoholism Counseling: Issues for an Emerging Profession, editor of Drunk Driving in America: Strategies & Approaches to Treatment and was associate editor of Alcoholism Treatment Quarterly. He created Accountability Training®, a high-outcomes treatment model for substance-abuse offenders.

JEFF WILBEE CAE INTERNATIONAL ACCREDITATION

... is immediate past president of IC&RC, the International Certification and Reciprocity Consortium. He is responsible for the worldwide development of IC&RC professional accreditation. With over 30 years' experience in addictions and community corrections, he brings to the podium knowledge, passion and a professional speaking style.

GEORGE WILLIAMS InEXCESS TV

... is founder and CEO of InExcess Television – see some of its activities on opposite page. George describes himself as having had a “heavyweight drink problem” and, in seeking his own recovery, has put a human face to addiction, breaking down stigma. He inspires people who are suffering, and connects families, friends and carers who need support

MATTHEW WOLF GROUP THERAPY

... oversees admissions, marketing, community relations, business development, medical records, support services and more as vice president of business operations at Seabrook House, the largest private non-profit chemical dependency treatment organisation in southern New Jersey. In his 21+ years with the organisation, Matt has served as a helpline counsellor, director of admissions and director of business development. In 2009, Matt celebrated 25 years in recovery from chemical dependency.

For help with any exhibitor bookings, contact Melissa Gordon on 020-7233 5333 or melissa@addictiontoday.org

For help with any delegate bookings, contact Suzanne Gooch on 020-7233 5333 or subscriptions@addictiontoday.org

Inexcess will be covering UKESAD 2010

Visit our studio in the exhibition hall, take part in televised Question Time events, join us filming Saturday's Bridges to Recovery walk and contribute to our '2010 Year of Recovery' campaign.

INECESS.tv www.inexcess.tv
www.2010yearofrecovery.com

2010
YEAR OF RECOVERY

WE ARE GRATEFUL TO OUR SPONSORS:

Their generous contributions subsidise this symposium/delegate rates so that more professionals and trainees in the field can benefit from world-class experts, exchange knowledge and best practice, and network with like-minded colleagues, raising standards for the ultimate benefit of addicts and their families seeking recovery.

2010 INTERNATIONAL SPONSORS INCLUDE:

- RAPT | Rehabilitation for Addicted Prisoners' trust
- Linwood Group
- AdCare
- Castle Craig Hospital
- Behavioral Health of the Palm Beaches
- Seabrook House
- Promises Treatment Centers
- Hazelden
- Foundations Recovery Network
- Sierra Tucson
- Montrose South Africa
- Priory Healthcare
- Crossroads Antigua
- BAC O'Connor Centres
- C4 Recovery Solutions

Brought to you by:

ADDICTION TODAY
& the ADDICTION RECOVERY

FOUNDATION charity no 328133